

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface – Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju	xiii
Foreword – Prof. Emmanuel Bayode Ajulo	xv
Introduction – Josef Schmied, Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju and Demola Jolayemi	xix

Section I: Pragmatics and Sociolinguistics

1. My friend, where is Anini?: Decoding the meaning of utterances - ADEGBIJA, E.E.	3
2. Language attitudes and the issue of dominance: The Nigerian experience - ALEBIOSU, A.T.	11
3. Language, economics and globalisation: Arresting Devaluation through Protectionist Marketing - FUNMI O. OLUBODE SAWE	27
4. Second language varieties have a life of their own - PRAMOD PANDEY	35
5. Towards standardisation of Nigerian Pidgin: Political cartoons as viable resources - OYINKAN MEDUBI	43
6. Ambiguation and reinterpretation as rhetorical strategies in political talk: Making weapons of names, logos and slogans - TOPE OMONIYI	57

Section II: Language and Linguistics

7. Universals of Causation – Principles of Causativity - CHRISTOPH HAASE	73
8. On the so-called genitive morpheme in standard Yorùbá - OLADELE AWOBULUYI	85
9. A case for constraint suppression in optimality theory - FRANCIS O. OYEBADE	99

10. The categorical status of òun: a Yorùbá putative conjunction
- JOHNSON F. ÌLÒRÍ	111
11. Nominal modifiers as a functional class in Yorùbá
- FOLÚKÉ BÓLÁNLÉ ADÉKÉYÉ	121

Section III: Applied Linguistics

12. Computational philology
- MARTIN WEISSER	139
13. Reference, coherence and complexity in students' academic writing: Examples from Cameroon and East-Africa corpora
- JOSEF SCHMIED & DANIEL NKEMLEKE	149
14. Student-centred Teaching of Literature in ESL Classroom
- BOSEDE SINMISOLA SOTILOYE	171
15. E-learning methods for teaching linguistics: The Masaryk experience
- OLGA DONTCHEVA-NAVRAŤILOVÁ, IRENA HŮLKOVÁ & RENATA POVOLNÁ	183
16. Impact of drama on English language communicative competence: A study of secondary schools in Western Province of Kenya
- CHARLES OCHIENG' ONG'ONDO & CHRISTOPHER JOSEPH ODHIAMBO	201

Section IV: Stylistics, Literature, Drama and Theatre

17. Language and Literature in Transition in African literature
- JAMES OLUKAYODE OMOLE	215
18. Rethinking the French syllabus of Stylistics within the Nigerian university system
- YETUNDE OLUWAFISAN	227
19. Demystifying “mysteries” and “miracles” of exotic technology: a stylistic and cultural examination of aspects of Soyinka’s writings
- SAMSON DARE	235
20. A stylo-semantic appraisal of “Black culture”
- DEMOLA JOLAYEMI	249

21. Linguistic framing and unconscious identities: Africanity and Psychosis in the Works of Bessie Head - TAIWO OLORUNTOBA-OJU	261
22. HIV/AIDS awareness campaign in Nigerian indigenous languages: Reflections on “Abule oloke merin” Yoruba radio drama - ADEYEMI ADEGOJU	277
23. New Female Dramatists in Nigeria - MABEL EVWIERHOMA	285
24. A comparative study of two epic forms: Wole Soyinka’s “Idanre” and John Milton’s Paradise Lost - OLUFEMI IBUKUN DUNMADE	295
25. Pragmatism, history and aesthetics in the drama of Ola Rotimi - OMOTAYO OLORUNTOBA-OJU	309
26. Proverbs and the thematic thrusts of selected poetry of Wole Soyinka - KAYODE N. AFOLAYAN	319
27. Telling the dancer from the dance: A deconstructionist engagement with Okot p’Bitek’s Song of Prisoner - CHRISTOPHER ODHIAMBO JOSEPH	329
Notes on Contributors	337
Index	341