Table of Contents

Preface 9

I) Relationship to Husserl 13

1) Adorno and Husserl 13

"Logical Absolutism, Skeptical Relativism" 13

The Antinomies of the Intuition of Essences and the Noema 22

2) Derrida and Husserl 32

Indication and Expression 32

Irreducible Non-Presence 38

Temporalization and Spatialization 42

II) Identity and Difference 49

1) Identity and Difference in Adorno 49

Phylogenesis as Negative Totality 49

The Law of Exchange and Second Nature 54

Art as Aconceptual Cognition 60

Which Dialectics 65

Constructing Constellations and Exploding the Identity Compulsion 72

2) Identity and Difference in Derrida 83

Phonocentrism and Grammatology 83

Différance and Ontological Difference 93

Deconstruction as the Multiplication of Languages and Texts 102

3) A Comparison 109
Convergences 109
Deconstruction as Radicalized Negative Dialectics? 120

III) Ethics and Politics 133
1) Metaethics and Metapolitics in Derrida 133
Deconstruction as Conservation: The Heidegger Case 133
Justice as Law's Other 137
2) Aspects of the Identity Compulsion in the Post-Fordist Present, or a Backward Look Ahead with Adorno 142
A Hegemonic Single Doctrine 142
"Freedom," "Pluralism," "Self-Reliance": One Language, One Mind, One World 147

Bibliography 164