

Table of Contents

Introduction	9
Paul Benneworth, Nick Clifton, Brian Doucet, Christiane Goebel, Rüdiger Hamm, Yasemin Schmitz
The Use of Image in Regenerating Old-Industrial Regions.....	19
Gerald Wood
The Role of Universities of Applied Sciences for Regional Development – The Case of Niederrhein University of Applied Sciences.....	37
Rüdiger Hamm, Yasemin Schmitz
Breaking the stereotypes in old industrial region – case study of Upper Silesia region	57
Piotr Pachura
State attempts to improve regional image? A comparative analysis of environment- and leisure -orientated regeneration strategies in the Emscher Zone (Germany) and North Staffordshire (England)	69
Marta Jacuniak
Reimaging of industrial cities in Czech Republic: selected drivers of change.....	89
Pavel Bednář, Jaroslav Koutský, Petr Rumpel, Ondřej Slach
Place-Branding and Product-Branding in a peripheral economy: the case of Wales.....	115
Nick Clifton

The improvement of image by major sports events – The example of the Hockey World Cup 2006 in Mönchengladbach.....	137
Christiane Goebel, Rüdiger Hamm
Patent applications in the Ruhr-Area: Strengths and weaknesses.....	155
Ricarda Kampmann
City marketing from the perspective of planning theory and tourism studies	173
Gert-Jan Hospers
Regional Analysis based on Geographic Information sys-tems – A Comparison of Ruhr and Upper Silesia.....	185
Cyryl Garus, Martin Pudlik
How to Make a City Attractive for Knowledge-Intensive Firms? – The Formation and Stagnation of the Media Industry in the Old Industrial Region of Halle (Germany)	201
Martin T.W. Rosenfeld, Christoph Hornyhch
The Indonesian Automotive Cluster and Its Complexity in Japanese MNEs towards Technology and Knowledge Capability in the Global Production Network.....	221
Dessy Irawati
From FIAT City to World Design Capital: The evolving image of Turin as a industrial metropolis.....	237
Paul Benneworth
Waterfront regeneration in old industrial cities: the cases of the Kop van Zuid in Rotterdam, and Glasgow Harbour	259
Brian Doucet	