

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1.	Introduction
	1.1 Classification of riparian landscapes.....	1
	1.2 Importance of riparian forests	5
	1.2 Characteristics of riparian forests in the tropics.....	7
	1.3 Researches on riparian forests.....	8
	1.4 State of natural riparian forests in North-eastern Vietnam.....	18
	1.5 Research Objectives.....	19
2.	Site description
	2.1 Topography, geography and hydrology.....	21
	2.2 Climate and soil.....	22
	2.3 Socio- economical situation.....	25
	2.4 Vegetation.....	27
	2.5 Forest management.....	29
3.	Materials and methods
	3.1 Selection of study sites.....	31
	3.2 Data collection
	3.2.1 Survey of stand structure and dynamics.....	32
	3.2.2 Tree ring sampling.....	36
	3.2.3 Measuring of internal osmotic potential.....	37
	3.2.4 Soil sample.....	40
	3.2.5 Social methods.....	41
	3.3 Data analysis.....	43
4.	Results and discussions
	4.1 Characteristics and forest management history of study sites.....	44
	4.2 Forest products and their use.....	48
	4.3 Soil characteristics of the study areas.....	54
	4.4 Floristic analyses
	4.4.1 Species area curve.....	56
	4.4.2 Important tree species and families in the study areas.....	57
	4.4.3 Species diversity.....	61

4.4.4	Species similarity.....	67
4.4.5	Species distribution in different gradients.....	68
4.4.6	Vegetation characteristics of the actual riparian forests	74
4.5	Horizontal structure
4.5.1	Standard error.....	79
4.5.2	Mean diameter and basal area.....	80
4.5.3	Diameter distributions.....	83
4.6	Vertical structure
4.6.1	Diameter-height relations.....	88
4.6.2	Stand height	97
4.6.3	Vertical distributions.....	100
4.7	Estimated volumes and biomass	102
4.8	The dynamics of woody understorey regeneration.....	105
4.9	Tree ring analysis
4.9.1	Relation between tree growth and climate.....	111
4.9.2	Tree growth dynamics.....	117
4.10	Tree and osmotic potential relation.....	128
5.	Conclusions and recommendations
5.1	Current status of the research stands.....	135
5.2	Recommendations towards sustainable management strategies for riparian forests, NE Vietnam.....	137
6.	Summary.....	141
7.	Zusammenfassung.....	147
8.	References.....	152
9.	Appendices.....	163
